Subject: RE: Harbour

Good afternoon,

In reviewing the defendant's criminal history just now, he has an active order of protection against him. This was issued on 08/22/2024 and reportedly served on 11/20/2024. The protected party is the defendant's wife and per this order he is not permitted to have contact with his children. As a result, the language allowing him to participate in activities in the community with his children will need to be removed.

The Court has been made aware of the above noted information. I am waiting to hear from the Court regarding the proposed modifications and if we need to appear in person.

Thank you,

Ian Scott
